

Salt Fair Committee – Tuesday 15th May 2018

Present

Cllr Mrs Gina Lewis, (Winsford Town Council), Cllr Steve Smith (Winsford Town Council), Derek Johnson (X-Hatch Gallery), Zoe Sergeant, (Compass Minerals), Mark Bailey (Winsford Town Council) and Emma Haspell (Winsford Town Council).

1) Apologies

Ian Rodgers (X-Hatch Gallery), Emma Brown (volunteer), Anthony Baker (volunteer), Harry Sharland (Sharland's Fair), and Jay McGough (Volunteer).

2) Minutes of the last meeting – 18 April 2018

The minutes of the last meeting of the Committee were approved as a correct record.

3) Budget

Cllr Mrs Lewis reported that Resmar Ltd had agreed to donate £250.00 to the Winsford Salt Fair.

Cllr Smith asked whether the income from Harry's fair and from the Circus Funtasia could also be donated to the Salt Fair.

4) Charter Reading

Cllr Mrs Lewis reported that she had asked Oliver Bancroft from the Winsford Academy if he would provide some music for the Charter reading.

5) Entertainment/Activities – Mikron theatre

Cllr Mrs Lewis suggested that there should be a reduced early bird rate for the Mikron tickets.

She also said that Georgina Lockett, Georgina's Blooms, would be willing to sell some tickets and programmes and that the Rotary club would provide stewards for the Mikron theatre.

It was reported that Jay McGough's daughter would be the Salt Queen for 2018 and that Jay would be providing her dress.

It was also reported that the Town Crier would like to be involved.

6) Open Air Service

Oliver Bancroft from the Winsford Academy to provide some music.

7) Arts

Derek said that there would be a Methodist Modern Art collection pending grant funding.

He said that there would be a couple of workshops and a Salt and Light exhibition.

He said that there wouldn't be an Arts trail this year.

8) Community Engagement

Zoe said that she would be happy to provide some salt artefacts and to provide the question for the annual salt mine competition.

9) Event Plan

It was reported that Harry might not be able to park his vehicles in the area where it is fenced off.

10)Publicity

It was reported that the Rotary club were happy to sell programmes and that the programmes would be on sale during the last week in August.

11)Any Other Relevant Business

EH to distribute the correspondence for the bar tenders.

12)Date of Next Meeting

Tuesday 12 June 2018 at 5.00 pm (Winsford Town Council Chamber)